

THE LANGUAGE FLAGSHIP

CHINESE OVERSEAS FLAGSHIP PROGRAM

FALL 2018 NEWSLETTER

November Site Visit

On November 2, Center Director Zhang Qin and Internship Coordinator Sara Valentine traveled to Beijing to visit a current student interning at Lingfeng Capital, a Beijing-based financial-tech focused private equity investment firm. Internship responsibilities include researching potential investment opportunities, drafting briefs, and analyzing current projects.

Post Program Exams

The spring 2018 cohort will return to Nanjing to take their post program oral proficiency interview (OPI) and online reading and listening exams from November 19—20.

Departures

Several students will complete their Capstone year and depart for the United States as early as November 23.

Nanjing Spring 2018 Cohort Internship Updates

In an effort to provide more information about internship opportunities to the fall 2018 cohort, internship staff organized a mini-internship fair on October 30. Two current Nanjing-based internship providers, Covey Education and ADIA, presented and connected with students.

Staff also invited two alumni Annabelle Qualls (The University of Oregon—Spring 2018; currently interning at ASAP+ in Shanghai) and Palmer Withers (The University of Mississippi—Fall 2014) to serve as alumni panelists.

Major	Internship Provider	Industry	City
Chinese	Lingfeng Capital	Private Equity	Beijing
Economics	Covey Education	Education	Nanjing
Psychology	NJU School of Engineering	Academia	Nanjing
Finance, Chinese	Tencent	Tech	Nanjing
Linguistics	Edge Consulting	Consulting	Nanjing
English Education	Guru Online	Marketing	Nanjing
Chinese	ADIA	Gaming	Nanjing
Political Science	Shanghai Daily	Journalism	Nanjing
Economics, Chinese	Edge Consulting	Consulting	Shanghai
Chinese	New Wave Hearing	Healthcare	Shanghai
Public Health	Pearl Studio	Production	Shanghai
English Lit.	ASAP+	Consulting	Shanghai